

We are in the process of updating our application routes and case submission templates.

NEW changes will be taking place for the 2018 examination case requirements.

IF you are planning on taking the examination in 2018, please check back for up to date information which will be posted early summer 2017.